WHAT WILL BE YOUR LAST WORDS?

If it is possible to bring the old people together, and ask them to tell us the story of their lives, we are likely to hear diverse summaries. One elderly man will get up and say, "If not for the bad friends I kept when I was young, I would have been very useful for God. It is a pity that strength is no more there for me".

An old lady will get up and say " I regret meeting that young man I met when I was in secondary school. He introduced me into immorality which messed up my life so much even when I got married, I was still involved in extra marital affairs. The problem made it impossible for me to either have a stable home or be useful for God.

Another couple will get up and say "It is a pity that we did not actually learn the right definition of success when we were young. We thought it was all about making money and making sure we have all the comforts of life. But as we grew old, we have realized that we were wrong.

We have a palatial home now that our children are not even interested in, big cars and other worldly toys, that occupied our hearts so much that we had no place for God.

Others would come up and tell us how they have either spent or wasted their lives. But I am sure that there will be a few others who will come up and tell the audience how they have invested their lives for God.

They will come up and tell us how they submitted their lives to God and defined success in a way that included God.

They will be able to tell us that they used their lives to invest in eternity. Such people will be able to say like Paul:

" I have fought the good fight,

I have finished the race

I have kept the faith

Finally there is laid up for me

The crown of righteousness,

Which the Lord, the righteous Judge,

Will give to me on that Day

And not to me only

But also to all who love his appearing.

(2 Tim. 4:7&8)

If I am called upon, that is what I want the testimony of my life to be. What will your own be?

HOW TO MAKE HEAVEN YOUR HOME

ABIDING GRACE
E-TRACT 015

Pray this prayer from your heart

"My Father in heaven,

I know that I am a sinner.

I believe that Jesus Christ, your Son died on the cross for my sin and rose from the dead to be my Lord. I now repent of my sin and invite the Lord Jesus into my heart.

Thank you for the wonderful gift of eternal life!

I will live for you as you reveal yourself to me in your word, the Bible.

In Jesus name I pray"

After the prayer, ensure that you attend a Bible based church so as to fellowship with other believers.
